

Misses Tilley Are Brides This Afternoon

NEW CANAAN—A double wedding will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the New Canaan Congregational Church when Miss Celinda Barker Tilley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Popple Tilley of Driftways, Bald Hill Rd., will be married to Ensign Carl Johnston Winstead, USNR, son of Reuben Winstead of Jackson, Miss., and the late Mrs. Winstead, while her sister, Miss Winifred Nevada Tilley, will become the bride of Mason Pratt Pearsall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Pearsall of Brooks Rd.

The Rev. Merrill Fowler Clarke will officiate and a reception for the families and out-of-town guests will follow at Driftways.

Mr. Tilley will give his daughters in marriage. Miss Celinda Tilley will wear an ivory satin princess style gown with a long train. Miss Winifred Tilley, who will be escorted by her brother, David Tilley, will wear a gown fashioned with a white satin bodice and ninon skirt with a long train. The fingertip illusion veils of both brides will be arranged from Juliet caps and they will carry cascade bouquets of white carnations.

Miss Jane Norrick of New Canaan and Miss Dorothy French of Warren, Ohio, will be attendants for Miss Celinda Tilley. Their gowns will be of shocking pink and they will wear short matching veils and carry light blue sweet peas. Miss Winifred Tilley will be attended by Miss Lillian Moller and Miss Mary Pearsall, sister of the bridegroom. They will wear light blue gowns with matching veils and carry pink carnations. Ensign James D. Anderson of Stamford, will be best man for Ensign Winstead and John M. Tilley, brother of the bride, and David Phillips of New Haven will usher. Robert Lynch of Larchmont, N. Y., will be best man for Mr. Pearsall and ushers will be James Neimyer of Old Greenwich and Harry McKown of New York.

Miss Celinda Tilley was educated at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and Columbia University. She is descended from Roger Williams, founder of Rhode Island. Ensign Winstead attended Mississippi State College and is stationed in Panama City, Fla., where the couple will make their home.

Miss Winifred Tilley also attended the Woman's College and was graduated from Katharine Gibbs School, New York. Mr. Pearsall was graduated from Lehigh University. They will make their home in Norfolk, Conn.
